

Mala de herança-Irlanda will present a dramatized story of “A Bruxinha Roxa e a Besoura Beeze: a bruxinha roxa que perdeu a música por causa da besoura” by Janine Henriques.

This is the story of a very kind and special little witch who loved writing songs. Then one day her friend Beeze eats, all by herself, a tart containing a precious song portion about friendship that bruxinha roxa had made specially for both of them. Something unexpected happens and bruxinha roxa can't remember her friend Beeze anymore. Who is going to help them now? Join us to find out !

Celebrate the first release of Janine Henriques children's book, “A Bruxinha roxa e a besoura beeze: a bruxinha roxa que perdeu a música por causa da besoura beeze”.

The author will answer questions, and sign books. Please join the merriment as we launch the career of a new exciting Brazilian author.

The Portuguese Language centre will have stand in the exhibition area where the book can be purchased.
